REMEMBER

THE branches creak against the windows, and the wind mourns complainingly around the corners of a grand and stately building. Approaching nearer, we see SMITH-COTTON in big letters over the door. We enter softly, and go into the corridor. The hall is wrapped in gloom and silence; through the gloom we discern the stairs, and go up to the balcony.

There we stand and look down—down into the auditorium where once youth sat and labored over numerous books and papers. But now in the darkened place there is no sign of joy, only a blank space and many seats and a long empty stage. The heavy curtain hangs motionless; in the whole place there is no sound, no motion.

And then we seem to hear a voice saying, "I know you all enjoyed the program this morning, and now you may go to your third-hour classes." H. Fisher, of course. Through all the dust and gloom, we can see that it is H. Or is it? No, it seems to be only a shadow, and no living person at all. And the seats, they are filled with shadow people, all laughing and happy and eager. It is all so confusing.

We must leave now. The dead air is not good for us. Out in the halls once more, we hear the echoes of the past. Echoes of lockers being banged and slammed, recitations, glee club singing, Joe hammering, everything. Only echoes of years ago that are now so dim and muffled. A boy in a bright red sweater goes around the corner. A red sweater. Who was it? Alas, memory fails us, so many years ago it was.

We look into the library. It looks just the same; only the table tops and the ponderous-looking volumes are covered with dust. At one table sits a little light-haired girl, talking and giggling. Now who would that be? Before we can think back though, the shadow has faded away.

Softly we go out into the deepening gray twilight. It is getting late, and soon lights will be on, and people will be hurrying homeward. We see an army of phantom figures leaving at four-fifteen. They trudge silently on through the gloom until they reach the sidewalk, and here they part forever. For this is the walk of life, and each goes a different way, some to one occupation, some to another, and some to go the dark, unknown way that is called death. But they can never all be together again, once parted.

We do not look back again until we are ready to turn the corner. But we will always remember it as we saw it then—a huge, dark silhouette against the gray sky. It will sleep so until youth calls it again in the fall. All summer it dreams, and waits for youth to return again. It has dreams, but we have only memories. If we are dreamers, we will go often there, and talk again to the phantom figures; but if we are not, we can not understand. There are so many things that only a dreamer can see and understand.

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE Student Council of 1927-28 has enjoyed one of the most successful years since its beginning in 1925. This year's Council consisted of a group of thirty-five hard working, loyal students, each of whom did his best to hold up the standards of dear old Smith-Cotton.

The year's work has been directed along various lines, all for the betterment of the school. Among them was a clean-up campaign, a preservation of property campaign, a co-operative campaign, and the directing of the assemblies. The Council has eliminated traffic congestion, and has acted as an elective and governing body for the Spiz and Razzer members. The Council introduced a Courtesy Service Committee, and took charge of the High School Carnival. It has formulated a student code, laid down rules for the punishment of tardies, and compiled a new student Hand Book.

The Council is organized with a Constitution, and has for its purposes—

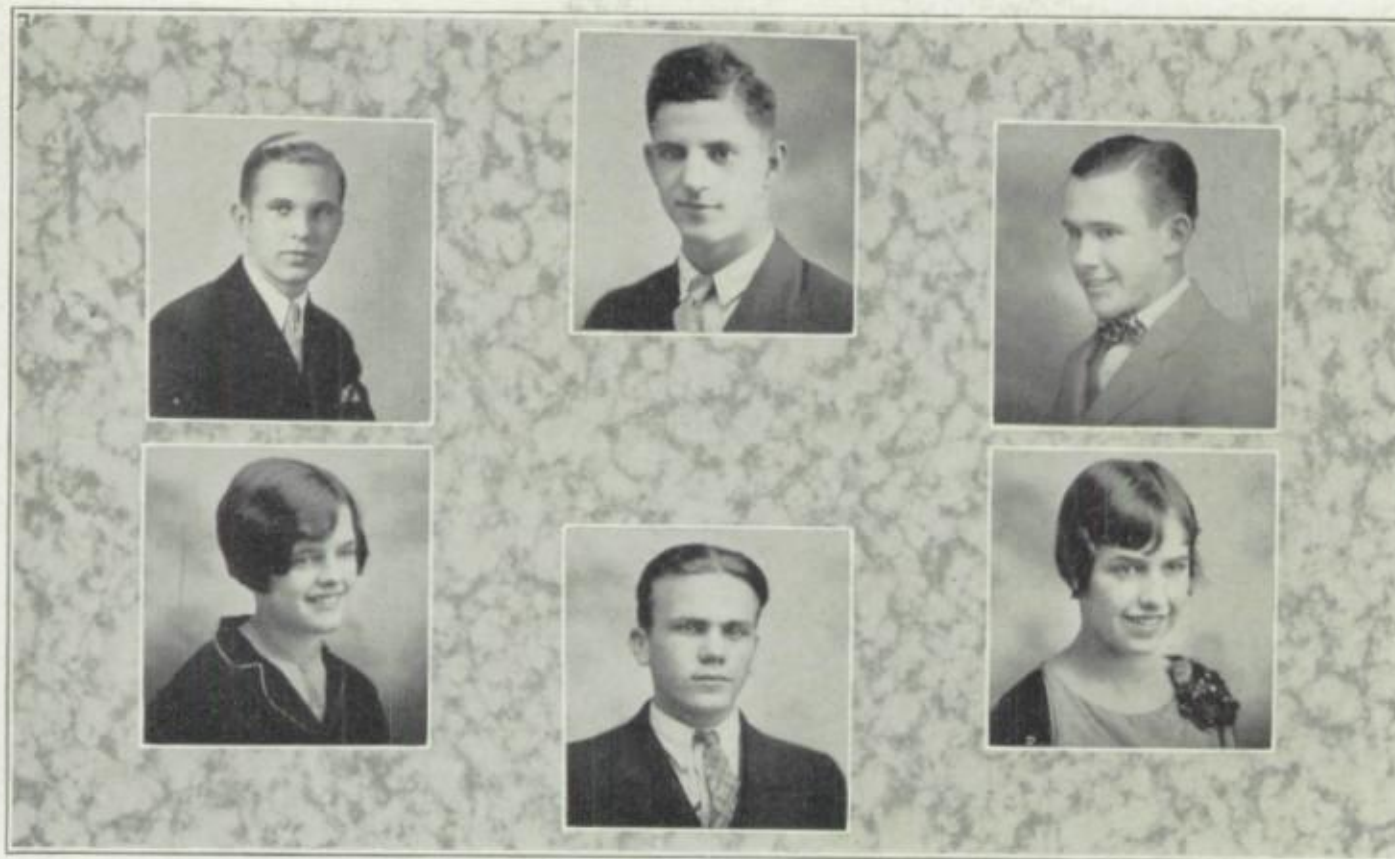

1. To promote co-operation between the student body and the Faculty.
2. To help support all activities.
3. To promote Student Government.

The body is made up of one representative from each Home Room, four representatives from the Senior Class at large, and two from the Junior Class at large.

Its members have enjoyed two banquets during the year, one at the close of each semester. These were given to entertain the entire council, as new members were eligible to election at the beginning of each semester.

The success of the Council this year is largely due to the efforts of H. J. Fisher, president; to Gerald Truitt, first vice-president, who served many times while Fisher was starring in athletics, and to Miss McCluney, our truly capable sponsor. It has also profited by the valuable advice of Principal Paul A. Grigsby.

Seniors

CLASS OF '28

R. G. MCFARLAND, President; MARCEIL ELLISON, Vice-President; MARY EDNA HERT, Secretary-Treasurer; JOE BOOTHE, Reporter; GERALD TRUITT, Cheer Leader

YES, 'twas four years ago that a Freshman class in '24 started its valiant struggle to reach that height to which all pupils aspire. Ah, Seniors!

We started in old Sedalia High, and then came as Sophomores into our present home. We have thus had three years in the new school, Smith-Cotton.

During our four years in high school we have given repeated evidence of the outstanding ability of our class. We have excelled in athletics, dramatics, debate, oratory, music, and practically every other school activity.

It was our class that, as Juniors, under the guidance of the Junior Sponsor, Miss McCluney, instituted the Candle Service, and the Junior tea. It was our class who inaugurated the Brother and Sister plan.

Again, our class has contributed largely to the success of the school paper, the Duster, the greater number of its staff having been members of the Senior class.

During the past year we have been ably guided by our Sponsor, Miss Cousley, and her assistants—R. G. McFarland, President; Marceil Ellison, Vice-President; Mary Edna Hert, Secretary and Treasurer; McDonald Egendorf, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Joe Boothe, Reporter.

H. J. Fischer was elected Student Council President, which place he has filled very efficiently.

Miss Margaret Cousley was chosen Queen of the Class of '28 and also Queen of the Archives.

Among the days to be long remembered by the Seniors of '28 were Kid Day, when all Seniors returned to the days when they were Freshies, and Hobo Day, a day of outing long and happily anticipated.

But the time is drawing near when we must depart, for we cannot hope to remain supreme in S. C. H. S. forever. We must relinquish our commanding position to the oncoming Juniors who, we hope, will try to live up to the same high standard which has inspired the Senior Class of 1927-28.

JOE BOOTHE, Reporter.

Juniors

CLASS OF '29

ALLEN PARKS, President; JEROME NEEDY, Vice-President; MARY FRANCES STALEY, Secretary-Treasurer; ERNESTINE URBAN, Reporter; WILLIAM MULLALEY, Sergeant-at-Arms

THE Junior Class of '29 elected the officers named above as leaders, and by a unanimous vote they chose Miss McCluney as Sponsor.

The Juniors gave the traditional Junior-Senior Dance, the Senior Tea, and the Farewell Candle Service. They decorated for the carnival, for graduation services, and furnished ushers for Baccalaureate Service.

The President began his administration by getting a goodly sum of money in the treasury in order that there might be funds to meet any emergency. The Class sent flowers to the sick or bereaved, gave a Spring Fete for its members, and left money in the treasury for a student loan fund. The Junior Class sponsored the Christian College Girls' Glee Club, which gave an interesting program February 17, and netted a neat sum to help with the expenses of the Class.

Edward Coontz, a Junior, was selected as Cheer Leader for the School. Much pep was shown under the leadership of Eddie—Rah! Rah! Rah!

We elected Helen Griessen as Queen, and Mary Louise Swearingen and Juanita Truitt as attendants.

We are proud of the Girls' Debate Team, which consisted of two Junior girls—Dorothy Gray and Vesper Vernon.

Many girls of the Junior Class received State Letters, among whom were Ethel Williams, Dorothy Stark, Ruth Adele Zander, Ruth Ann Archias, Jean Beausay, Doris and Dorothy Danforth, and Ernestine Urban.

We were well represented in athletics, having in football William Mullaley, All-Conference star; Walter Wilson, Capt.-elect; Mitzel, Kiehlbauch, Needy, Griffin, and Bricken—all of whom we know will keep up the splendid reputation of '28.

In basket ball were Needy, Mullaley, Keens, and Parks, who helped win all the honors which were received.

With the splendid co-operation of all Juniors, we predict a Senior Class for '29 who will be great leaders of SMITH-COTTON.

ERNESTINE URBAN, Reporter.

CLASS OF '29-'30

JESSIE SELLERS, Sponsor; TERRIL HUNTER, President; CATHERINE NORRIS, Vice-President; RUTH CAIN, Secretary; MARY RITCHIE, Reporter; RALPH SHACKELFORD, Cheer Leader

ON September 19, 1927, we elected the officers whose pictures appear above.

On January 23, we, the Junior Bs, launched upon the sea of learning for the eleventh time. We are rather a small, struggling class, but resolved to steer a straight course for future mid-year promotions.

Early in the year we came prominently into the public eye by being the first to obtain one hundred per cent in the Activity Ticket Sale.

In the fall, the class enjoyed a wiener roast, and later in the year the girls joined with the Junior A and Senior girls in giving a Leap Year Dance.

In football, we were represented by Hamilton, Parsons, and Golden; in basket ball, by Hunter.

Several of our girls have gained recognition in the strenuous field of Latin. Arline Laipple has the distinction of being accompanist for the Orchestra, and June Pauline Smith is accompanist for the Girls' Glee Club.

The class as a whole is much interested in the aspirations and victories of Smith-Cotton, and is anxious to forward and co-operate with any movement for the welfare of our school.

We wish to express our thorough appreciation for the kind and enduring interest taken in our class by our former and present sponsor, Mrs. Jessie Sellers.

CLASS OF '30

AMELIA COMBS, Sponsor; WILLIAM LIERMAN, President; PAUL TREADWAY, Vice-President; ALICE MESSERLY, Secretary and Treasurer; VIRGINIA DYER, Reporter; WILLIAM ANDERSON, Sergeant-at-Arms

"Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah—Sophomores."

"Say, Jack, who's that peppy bunch making so much noise?"

"That's the Sophomore class. They surely can yell, even if they're not such a large class."

"Since you are a Sophomore, couldn't you tell me some more about this class?"

CLASS OF '30

"First of all, we are proud of our officers. They have been very successful this year and helped us in every way.

"We chose Kathleen Francis as class queen.

"Oh yes, we had a Christmas party last December, but it would never have been so successful without the help of our sponsor, Miss Amelia Combs.

"Of course you saw the operetta, 'In Old Vienna.' We had a large number of Sophomores in it.

"Our class was represented in athletics, too—football, basket ball, and track."

"From what I've heard, you Sophomores must have a good class."

"You bet, but we're going to be better as Juniors."

VIRGINIA DYER, Reporter.

CLASS OF '30-'31

MILDRED FAULKNER, Sponsor; JAMIE TEMPLETON, Vice-President; ALBERTA OWENS, Secretary-Treasurer; NEVILLE JONSON, Reporter; WILSON FERGUSON, Cheer Leader; ALFRED SHORTRIDGE, Sergeant-at-Arms

OUR Class began Freshman work at the Martha Letts School the second semester of the school year 1926-27. Because of this fact, we entered Smith-Cotton on September 12, 1927, as Freshmen A's, and became the second of the middle-year classes.

Although our class is small, with a membership of only sixty-five, we have plenty of pep. Early in the year the above officers were elected.

Mrs. Mildred Faulkner was chosen sponsor of the class. Later in the year Miss Mildred Blount was voted class queen.

In the membership drive for P. T. A. the Freshman A's had the largest percentage of members, and were given the prize of ten dollars, offered by the P. T. A.

Garold Owen went out for football, and was a member of the second team.

Norman Harrison was one of the three successful candidates representing Smith-Cotton High in the county spelling contest.

We want to live up to the traditions of Smith-Cotton and make a record that will be a credit to our school.

ALBERTA OWENS, Secretary.

Freshmen

CLASS OF '31

ON the ninth day of September, the Freshmen gathered in the Auditorium of the Smith-Cotton High School. Here they were welcomed by Mr. Grigsby, Miss Cousley, Miss McCluney, and a committee of Seniors. The organization of the school and the routine of their new work was explained to them.

The first day of the new school year was made pleasant by the Seniors, who acted as "big brothers and big sisters." They helped the Freshmen to locate class rooms, and to become acquainted with their teachers. They made the Freshmen feel that they were not strangers, but were really a part of the large student body of the school.

At the first meeting of the Freshman class, Miss Beulah Harris was chosen sponsor, and the above-named officers were elected.

The members of the class enjoyed a "Kid" party during the early part of the year, and, at Christmas, parties were held in the various class rooms.

CLASS OF '31

The Freshman Class was represented on the football squad by Neil Arnold, who played in a number of games. They were represented in basket ball by Neil Arnold and Wilbur Glaze.

Edna Marie Kreiling, a member of the Student Council, was chosen class queen.

The members of the Freshman Class are proud of the record which they have made during their first year at Smith-Cotton. The next three years will find them continuing to uphold the high standards of Smith-Cotton High School.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

THE Parent-Teacher Association of Smith-Cotton high school for 1927-28 has a membership of 544. A prize of ten dollars was offered by the Association to the class which first secured one hundred per cent membership. This prize was won by the Freshman A's, whose sponsor was Mrs. Mildred Faulkner.

The officers elected for the year were:

MR. K. L. ZANDER	President
MR. RALPH DOW	Vice-President
MR. H. H. CECO	Second Vice-President
MRS. CLIFFORD JOHNSON	Secretary
MRS. PAUL TREADWAY	Treasurer

Under the leadership of our efficient president, some very entertaining and instructive programs were given and worth-while projects started. A loan fund, sponsored by Mrs. D. P. Dyer, was established for the use of worthy Smith-Cotton students.

One program of especial interest was the inspiring address of Hon. William L. Nelson of Columbia, Missouri, on "The Constitution," which was enjoyed by many of the students. Twice the Domestic Science girls, under the leadership of Miss Enloe, happily assisted at the social sessions. The Girls' Glee Club, led by Mrs. Walker, and the Physical Culture demonstration by the girls of Miss Bapple's classes were highly enjoyed numbers.

We are grateful to many of the students for solo numbers on our programs. We are indebted also to Principal Paul A. Grigsby and to the teachers and parents who have helped make our meetings a success.

The Smith-Cotton Parent-Teacher Association brings the home and school, the parents and teachers, into closer relationship, thus creating a friendliness that helps in the mental, spiritual, and physical education of the boy and girl.

WANTED: Every parent as a member next year.

JOURNALISM CLASS

The Journalism Class of '27-'28, sponsored by Miss Jones, and composed of twenty-four members, met in Room 100 every day during the sixth period.

The subject might still be considered a new one, as this was the second year in which it had been included in the regular curriculum.

Upon this class and its sponsor rested the responsibility for the publication of the Duster and of the Archives, the editor of which for this year was Gerald Thistlethwaite.

The study of journalism was substituted by many of the seniors for their last year of English, a course made practicable by the similarity of the two subjects and the fact that the textbook used in Journalism contains material which is considered of value in both journalism and English.

Although the Journalism students are held responsible for the publication of the Duster and the Annual, it was not with the intention of producing first class reporters, or real newspaper men, that the course was given. That the students might learn to read newspapers intelligently, and be capable of choosing and writing news for the school paper, was the ultimate aim of the class.

The gathering of the news and the regular class work are both of them in a big degree interesting and profitable, and we sincerely hope that this class will be popular with the students of succeeding years.

THE "Duster" was published by the Journalism class, comprising twenty-four Juniors and Seniors, under the supervision of Miss Mary Meade Jones, instructor of the class and advisor for the paper. It was published bi-weekly, coming out every other Friday.

Within this four-page paper were accounts of athletic events, editorials, exchanges, feature articles, alumni notes, and, in some issues, a cartoon.

The staff was made up of eight members, who were changed after each quarter so as to give every person in the class a chance to profit by practice in the varied forms of writing. There were two members on the staff, however, who served throughout the school year. These were the athletic editor and the art editor. The editors-in-chief for the four quarters are pictured above.

Both staff and reporters for "The Duster" are highly appreciative of the co-operation of teachers and students which has helped to insure the success of their school paper. They are especially grateful to those business men of Sedalia, who paid them the compliment of taking advertising space in their paper, and so helped to finance the enterprise.

DEBATE TEAM

LAWRENCE MCGEE, CECIL LOWER, VESPER VERNON, DOROTHY GRAY,
ALLEN GOLD, REECE DILLARD.

THE Debate squad of 1928 feels that it has had a very successful year, and lays much of the blame upon Coach Erickson. We are a small squad, numbering only six members—two boys' teams, comprising Lawrence McGee, Allen Gold, Reece Dillard, and Cecil Lower, all of whom are seniors, and one girls' team, made up of two juniors, Vesper Vernon and Dorothy Gray. Although the season has not been completely successful, so far as awards are concerned, the squad feels that a great deal of good has been accomplished. We are developing a policy whereby as many as possible of our debaters are given equal experience, thus eliminating the old-style first and second teams. If a strong, well balanced squad is to be maintained, it must be by instilling in the students a spirit of competition in debate as in other activities. Students of Smith-Cotton, put your best speakers on the squad, and your school will reap the harvest.

DEBATE AND PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS

LAWRENCE MCGEE	President
REECE DILLARD	Vice-President
FRANCES PATTERSON	Reporter
CECIL LOWER	Sergeant-at-Arms

THE Debate and Public Speaking Class of '27-'28, composed of twenty-five members, met in Room 107 every day during the second hour.

The class, with the assistance of Mr. Erickson, the sponsor, has accomplished much in the line of debate and public speaking.

Public speaking of any kind is a great benefit to the student. He learns how to apply the principles of speech taught in the English classes. He is taught to stand on his feet before an audience and express his ideas.

This course in public speaking is not intended to turn out finished public speakers, but girls and boys who can speak before others without embarrassment.

The work is interesting and profitable, and it is hoped that in future years it will increase in favor in the estimation of Smith-Cotton students.

FRANCES PATTERSON, '28, Reporter.

SPIZ AND RAZZER CLUBS

AT THE beginning of the year, the Spiz and Razzer Clubs were organized with thirty-two members selected by the Student Council from the Junior and Senior classes. The object of the Club has been to promote pep on all occasions, to keep the spirit of old Smith-Cotton indomitably high, and to promote a spirit of friendly rivalry.

This they have done by giving pep stunts at assemblies, on the football fields, and between halves at the basket ball games. During the football season the local aggregation and visiting teams were entertained by the pep squads. On two occasions the squads accompanied the team to foreign fields, giving their support and helping to down the enemy.

TEACHER-TRAINING CLUB

NOW, don't you feel sorry for the future generation? Well, you should. Just look at the future teachers. This is the largest and loudest group in Smith-Cotton. If my word isn't good, just ask our sponsor.

This is the Teacher-Training Club, which has been known in our high school for several years. It is composed of the junior and senior students who are taking the teacher-training course, under the direction of Miss Marie Waddill. There are fifty members in the club, including our sponsor. The club meets once a month in Miss Waddill's room, number 204. The purpose is to get practice in initiation, planning, and co-operating with groups, to enhance enthusiasm and interest in professional and rural life, and to prepare for rural leadership with the rural school as the community center.

We do not work all of the time; so do not let this report keep you from taking the Teacher-Training Course.

GIRLS' COUNCIL

OFFICERS

DAISY CUNNINGHAM	President
MARJORIE GILBREATH	Vice-President
VIRGINIA DYER	Secretary-Treasurer
HATTIE PALMER	Reporter
DOROTHY STARK	Song Leader
MISS COUSLEY	Sponsor

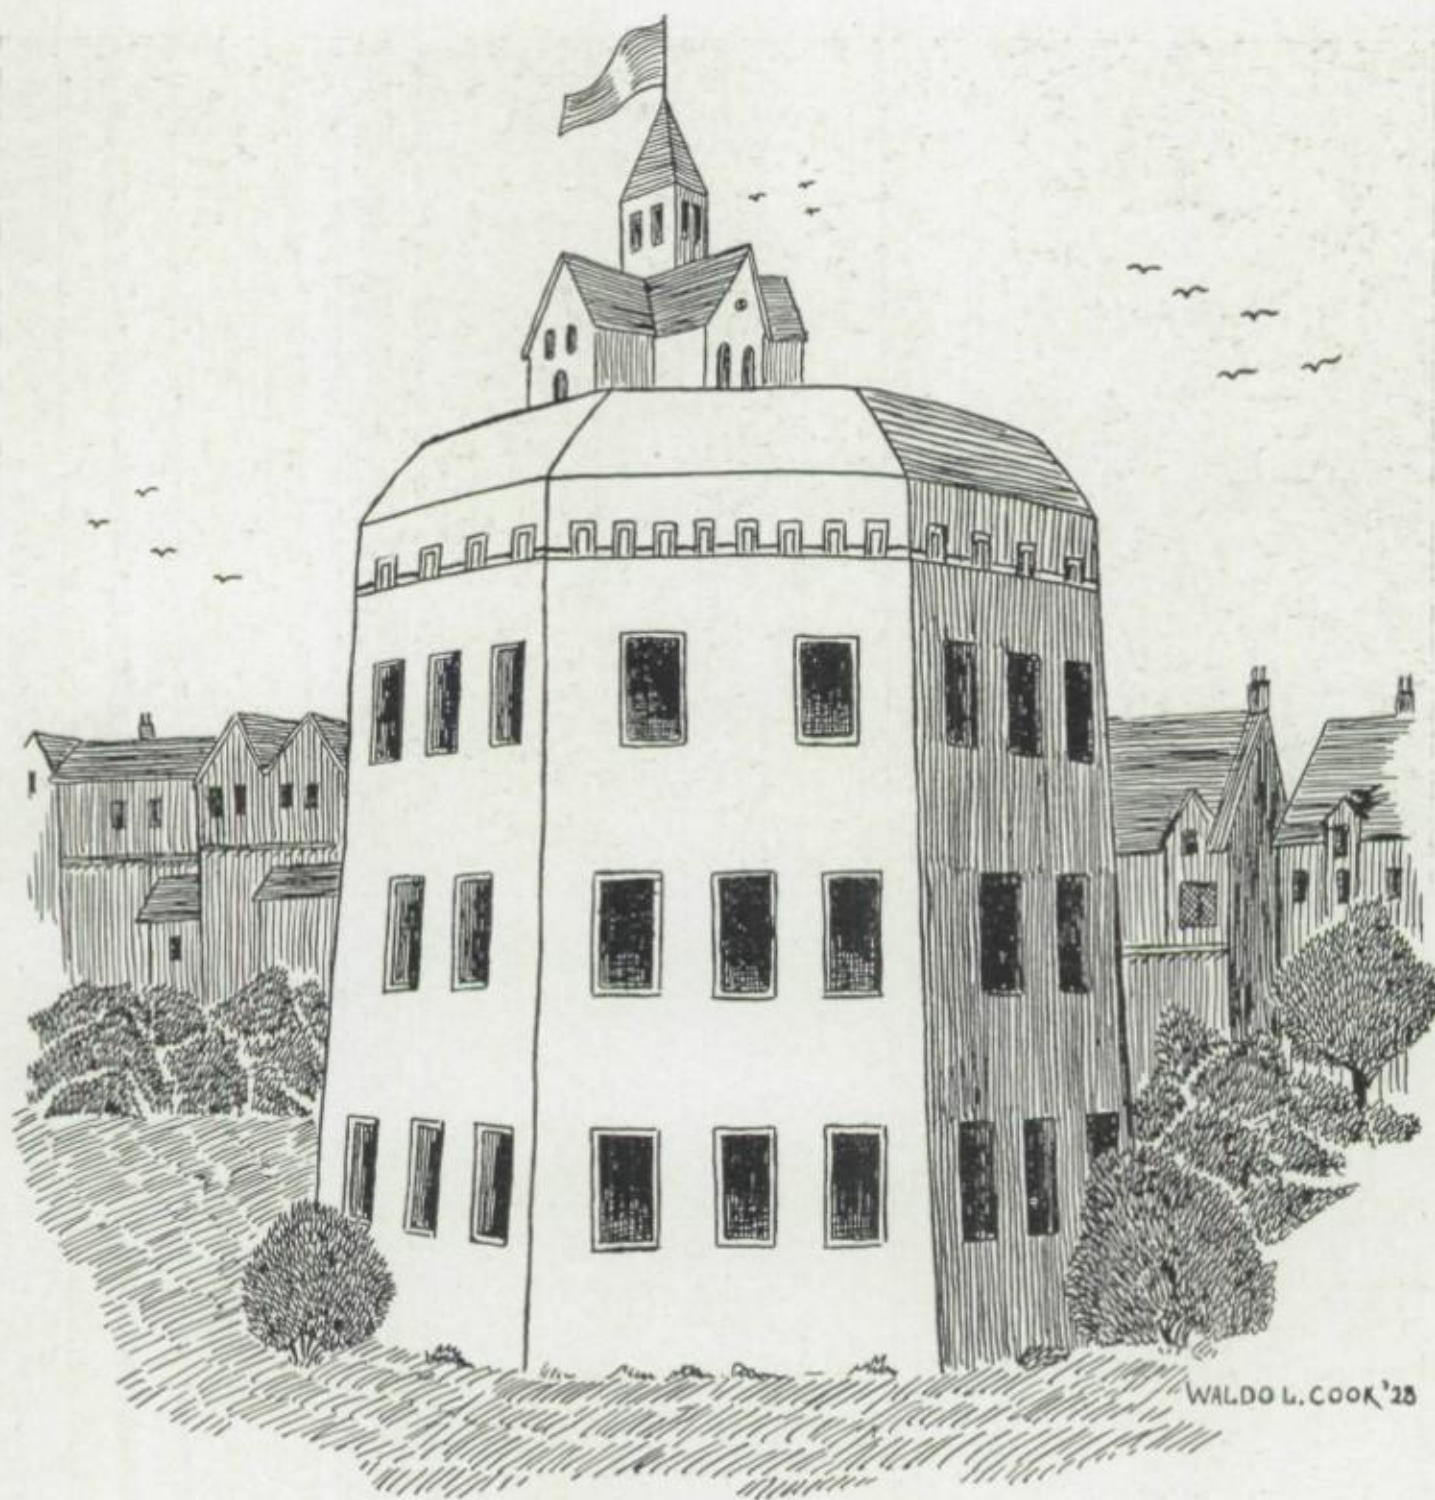

THE Girls' Council provides committees for programs used in the girls' segregated meetings, held once a month in the auditorium. This Council also discusses questions which they consider of interest, important enough to include in the programs of the whole group.

Composed as it is of members from every home room in the school, important announcements, or informational ideas may be given to every girl in the school with little trouble. The Council will be an important body in the school in another year's time. Through it, as a medium, the girls of the school may be unified into a working body for any school purpose, and may aid materially in realizing the aims of the Student Council.

It is the aim of these girls to make the girls of the school a dependable element, to further all school propositions for making Smith-Cotton a school to be desired altogether.

Members of the Council are:

THE Smith-Cotton Orchestra held its first meeting and elected its officers for the year September 14, 1927. The year was throughout an active and pleasant one. Mrs. Walker, the talented instructor in music, took such an interest in the organization that it was able to accomplish much more even than in the beginning had been hoped.

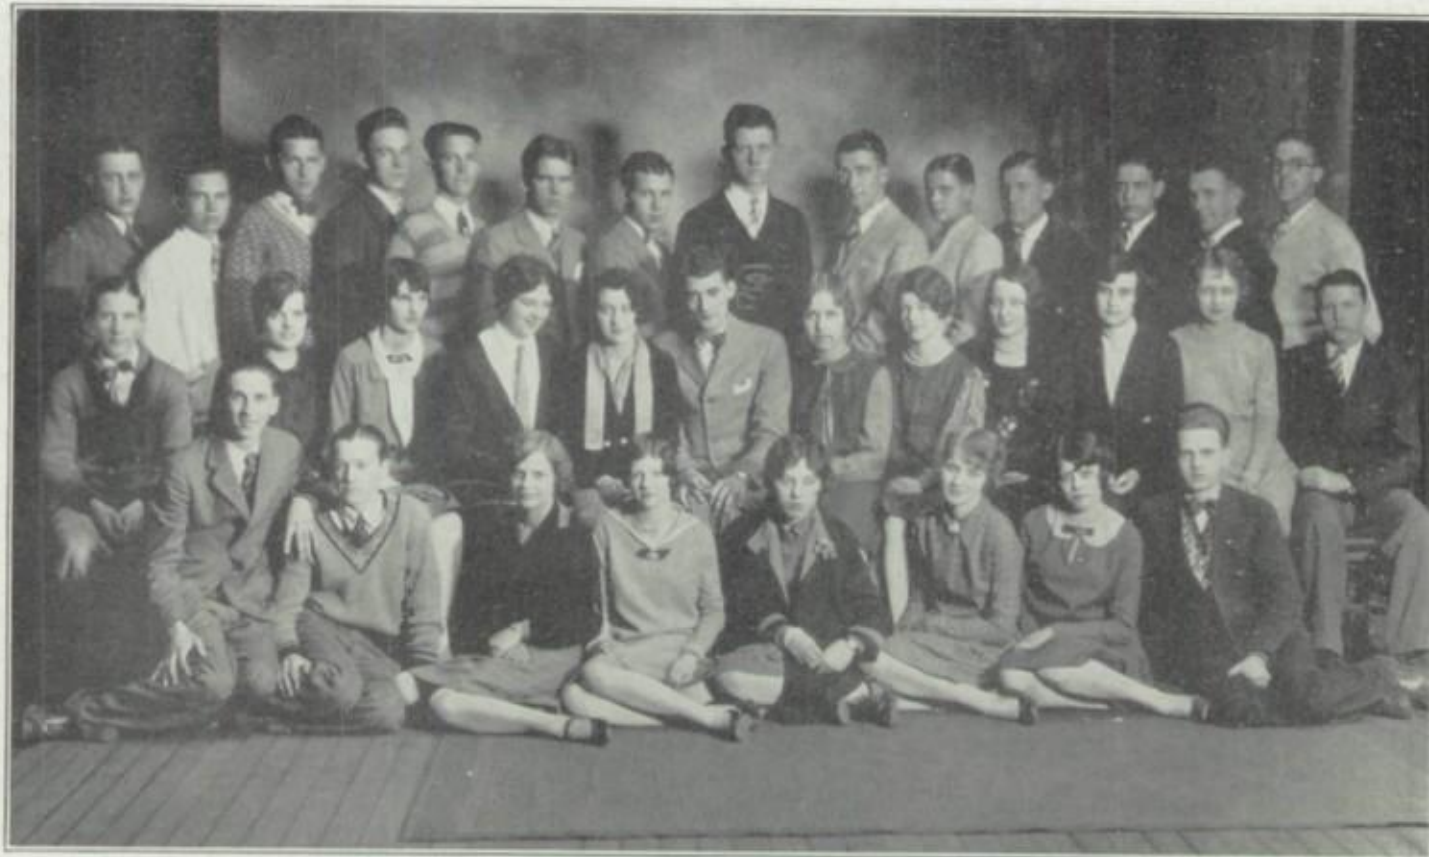

The Orchestra appeared, as a whole, eight times during the school term, and many times small orchestras composed of members of the class played at picture shows, banquets and other entertainments. It assisted materially in the musical comedy, "Pickles," and contributed music for the dramatic productions of the year.

The organization was glad to help wherever it could. It responded cheerfully and efficiently to every call from the first performance of the year to its last appearance in commencement week.

Members of the Orchestra were:

ARLINE LAIPPLE	CLARK EVANS	LUCILLE KEUKER
ARON MENDELL	JOHN MEYER	MARY RITCHIE

1928 CLASS PLAY

"TURN TO THE RIGHT," a comedy with three acts and a prologue, by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazzard, was given for the Senior Class Play on the evenings of May 21, 22, and 23, the last being Class Night, and was the climax of a year's work in the Dramatic Class.

When two ex-convicts meet the unsophisticated country girls things begin to move rapidly, and continue to do so throughout the play. Peach preserves that "taste good enough to be set in a pin," a mother with the faith of a saint, and a green country boy, "the big business man," are important elements in the success of the play.

The Deacon is "closer than the next second." His daughter, Elsie, is sure of her love for Joe, who is a really modest hero, and Mr. Morgan is the typical villain, thief and rival of Joe.

The ending is a delightful one, and brings three love-stories to a happy close.

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS

"THE PLAY'S THE THING," according to Mr. Shakespeare. The modern version of that old quotation would be, "The One-Act Play's the Thing." The leading Little Theatres of the country are popularizing them by extensive use.

Pursuing its established custom of always keeping abreast of the times, the Dramatics Class has maintained its place among the truly modern by presenting to the public six one-act plays in night performances, besides others given as parts of programs throughout the school year of 1927-28.

On January 12 and 13 the class, sponsored by Miss Eunice Cousley, presented three clever plays, the casts of which were as follows:

THE Girls' Glee Club has made a name for itself this year. The girls have appeared in public as a group eleven times, singing for banquets, assembly, the P. T. A., and other civic organizations. One of their most delightful experiences was the caroling at Christmas time. The operetta, "Pickles," given by the Glee Clubs and Orchestra Thursday and Friday nights, March 15 and 16, owes part of its success to their efforts. They also sang for commencement this year.

The Club won first in the Missouri Federation of Music Clubs Contest, held in Sedalia, Saturday, March 31, an honor of which it is very proud and for which it acknowledges its obligation to the able instruction of the director, Mrs. Walker.

The girls have ordered pins to commemorate their work in the Glee Club, which, we know, they will wear with much joy and pride.

UNDER the able leadership of Mrs. Walker, the Boys' Glee Club has had a very successful year. On various occasions they have sung before such civic clubs as the Kiwanis and the Rotary. At Christmas, in token of the high appreciation in which Mrs. Cotton's generosity is held by the school, they sang Christmas carols at her home. They sang also at the county jail and at the county home.

The Glee Club assisted in presenting three assembly programs, helped entertain at the Carnival, and took a very important part in the operetta, "Pickles," which was presented to the public March 15 and 16. In the numbers which they contributed to the Carnival Minstrel Show they made some of the greatest hits of the evening.

Individual members of the Club have, in addition, repeatedly contributed to the success of entertainments given by the school and by outside organizations.

OUR FOOTBALL RECORD

ON September 5, Coach Bushman issued the first call of the season for football, and about sixty-five boys reported to do their share of the work to produce a winning team for Smith-Cotton. This squad was soon lowered to four teams, who remained out for the rest of the season.

On the second day of practice, Coaches Bushman, Drake, and Davenport, began to build a team from the nine letter-men and the promising material that reported. After two weeks of hard training in the fundamentals of the game, four good teams were rounded into shape.

The Tigers opened the season at full speed, and continued to set the pace in the Big Seven Conference throughout the entire season, with only one defeat, that of the last conference game of the season, by the Independence High School eleven. This defeat prevented the Tigers from enjoying the undisputed right to the Big Seven Conference championship, and left the Bengals deadlocked with the Marshall High School for the title. None the less, Smith-Cotton made a record for 1927 that will be remembered for many years to come.

(CHINEY) KENNON, Tackle (Captain)

Kennon played a great game at tackle, and always got his man by breaking through the opponents' line and throwing them for heavy losses. "Chiney" graduates this year. Weight, 183.

OUR FOOTBALL RECORD

We lose nine letter-men this season, but, with the promising material in the several experienced men of last year, Smith-Cotton can expect a fighting team to carry the black and gold to continued victory and success.

Proofs that the Bengal grid warriors played a most successful season are that they outscored any team in Central Missouri, and led the Big Seven by scoring 175 points to their opponents' 32, and that they placed Fischer, Mullaley, and Hamm on the first all-Conference team, with Captain Kennon, Egdorf, and Blue holding berths on the second team. In addition, H. Fischer was chosen captain of the mythical all-Star team.

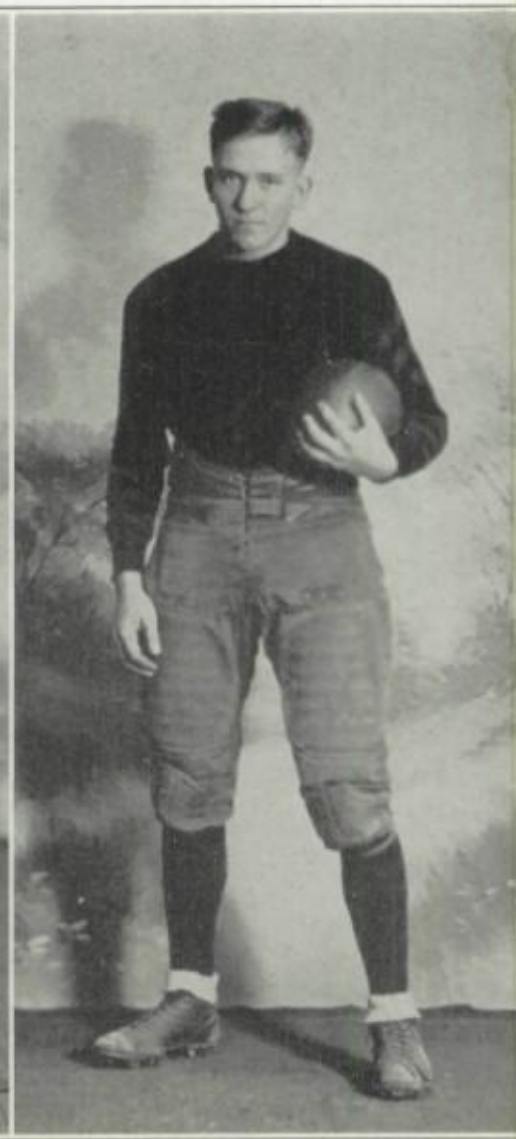

(H) FISCHER
Quarterback

"H" knew the play that was needed and made good gains in carrying the ball, but spent most of his time behind the line, calling signals, hurling passes, and punting. Weight, 163. He out-punted every opponent this season. "H" also graduates this year.

"RED" McGRATH
End

Smith-Cotton's own "Red Grange"—only he played at end instead of halfback. "Red" consistently smeared the opponents' plays. Weight, 157. "Red," too, graduates this year.

"RAY" MITZEL
Fullback

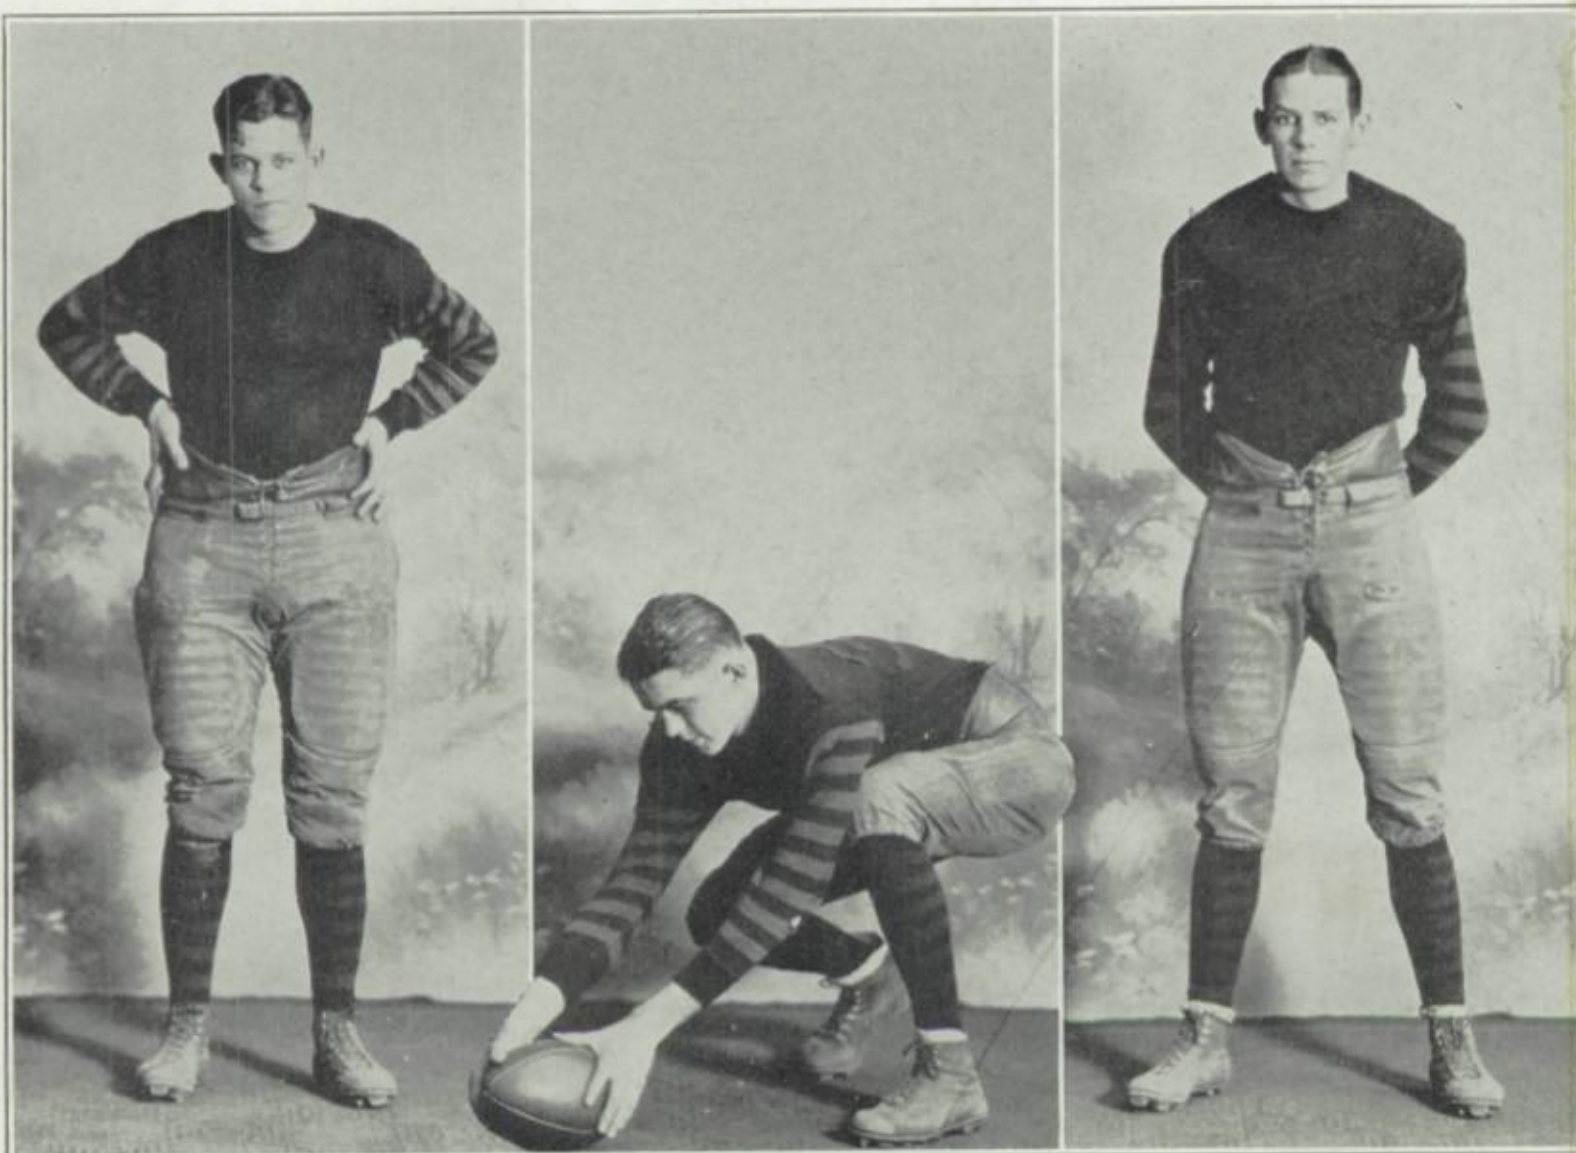

"Mitz" carried the ball around the ends for great gains, and was a good defensive player. He will be back next year to battle for Smith-Cotton. Weight, 165.

OUR FOOTBALL RECORD

SMITH-COTTON, 38—COLUMBIA, 0

Non-Conference—Sedalia, October 7

The Tigers opened the season of 1927 determined to avenge the defeats of 1926, and Columbia High School was the first to prove the sincerity of this determination. The Bengals started a great offensive at the opening whistle and continued throughout the game, running over their opponents in the steam-roller style. Their goal was never in danger; not once did the Kewpies get within the Smith-Cotton 35-yard line. Touchdowns: Hamm, 2; Fischer, 2; Wilder, 1; Gorrell, 1. Extra points: Fischer, 1, by place kick.

"BERTHA" HAMM
Fullback

Last year, "Bertha" broke through the opponents' line, throwing them for great losses. This year he broke through for great gains. Warren graduates this year. Weight, 205.

"MAC" EGDORF
Center

"Mac," in the center position, proved his mettle in solving the opponents' plays. "Mac" graduates this year. Weight, 177.

"UNCA WALT" WILSON
Tackle, Captain-elect

"Walt" was always there, blocking the opponents' plays and clearing the way for our Tigers. Weight, 178. "Unca Walt" will be back with us next year as Captain.

OUR FOOTBALL RECORD

SMITH-COTTON, 19—ODESSA, 0

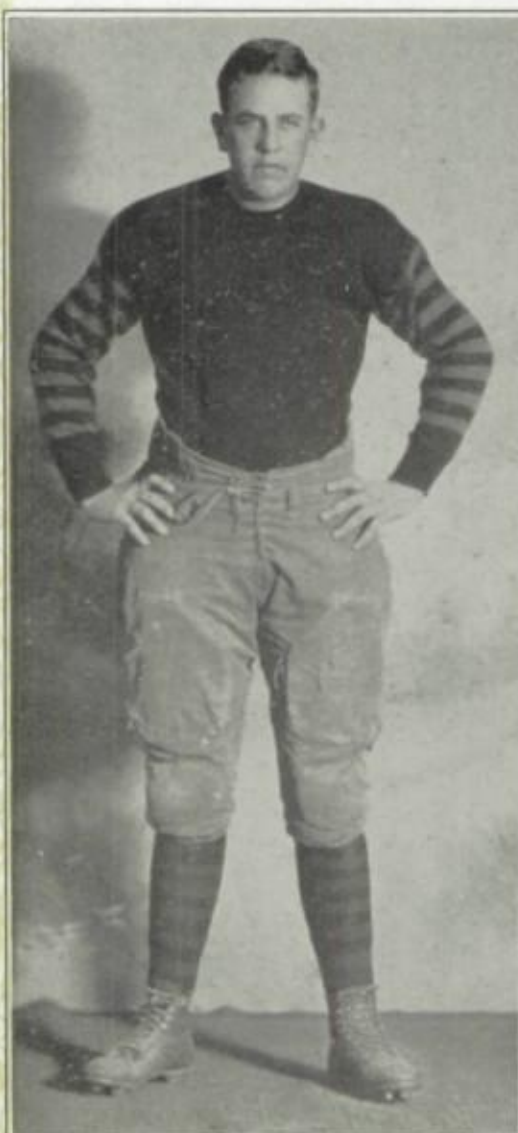

Conference—Sedalia, October 14

Odessa sent a fighting team on the gridiron, and fought to a scoreless tie during the first half. The Tigers, it seemed, could not get going, but the second half saw a decided change in play. Twice in the third quarter the Bengals marched across the goal line, and again in the fourth period. Touchdowns: Hamm, 2; Fischer, 2. Extra points: Fischer, 1, by place kick.

SMITH-COTTON, 25—LEXINGTON, 0

Conference—Lexington, October 21

The Tigers went to Lexington for their out-of-town game, avenged there their worst defeat of the 1926 season, and continued to set the pace in the Big Seven. Early in the first quarter, Hamm, the giant Tiger fullback, tore over for a touchdown. Again in the first quarter, McGrath, Tiger end, received a 40-yard pass for a touchdown. Touchdowns: Hamm, 1; McGrath, 1; Gorrell, 1; Mitzel, 1. Extra point: Fischer, 1, by place kick.

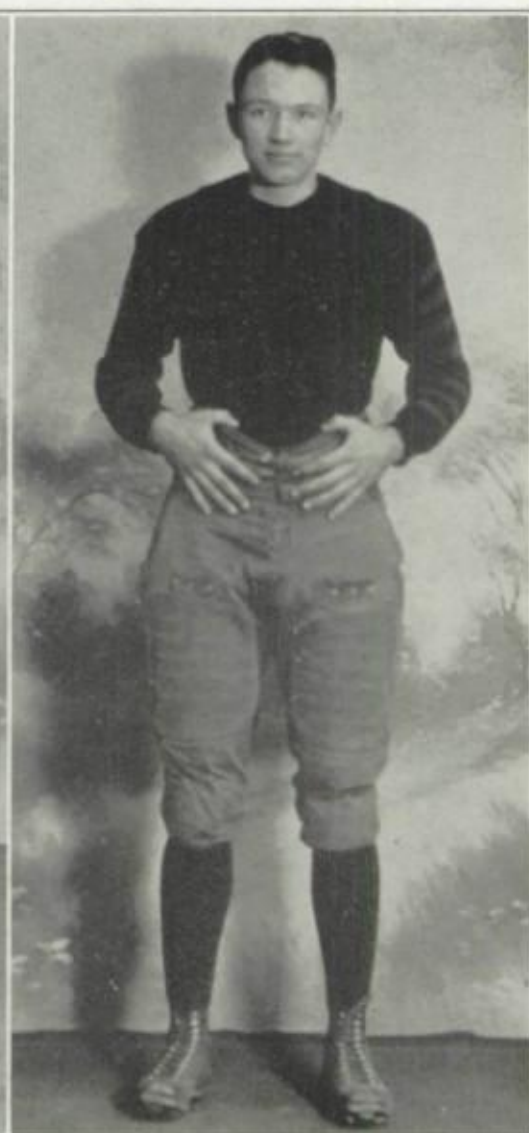

"COLY" ERVIN
End

"Coly" was in every play, and opened great holes for the Tiger backs. Weight, 187. He is another graduate of this year.

"BILL" MULLALEY
End

"Bill" was the fastest end in the conference, and, always playing the ball, he recovered more fumbles than any other player in the "Big Seven." Bill will be with us next year. Weight, 160.

"HAPPY" WILLIAMS
Halfback

"Happy" played a good all-round game, was good in receiving passes, and often tore through the enemy's line for great gains. Weight, 165. He also graduates this year.

OUR FOOTBALL RECORD

SMITH-COTTON, 31—HIGGINSVILLE, 12

Conference—Higginsville, November 4

The Tigers returned from Higginsville with their fourth conference victory, and their fifth of the season, after a spectacular game showing long gains by both teams. Two fumbles were costly to the Tigers' record for an uncrossed goal line, as they paved the way for Higginsville's two touchdowns, the only ones scored against the Smith-Cotton eleven up to this time. During the game, Flacky, fighting halfback, and McGrath, brilliant Bengal end, were injured and had to be removed from the contest; but they recovered from their injuries sufficiently to participate in the next game.

"DICK" GORRELL
Halfback

"Dick" was an exceptional ground-gainer — a run, a twist, a spin, and then he was gone. Dick graduates this year. Weight, 144.

"FLACKY" WILDER
Halfback

"Flackey" could play in any position. He was the "Big Seven's" greatest defensive player. When Wilder hits them, they stay hit. We also lose him this year. Weight, 156.

"DUNC" BLUE
Guard

"Blue" consistently blocked the opponents' plays; he also could recover fumbles and intercept passes. Weight, 180. We lose Duncan this year.

OUR FOOTBALL RECORD

SMITH-COTTON, 14—MARSHALL, 0

Conference—Marshall, October 28

This was the big game of the year, with the Tigers and Marshall tied for the Conference lead. The Smith-Cotton boys went into the contest to continue their clean record. During the first quarter, Marshall went around the Tiger ends for long gains, but in the second period the Tigers began to find their stride, and, with the aid of a fumble, succeeded in scoring their first touchdown. In the fourth quarter the Tigers scored twice, on a pass by Gorrell to McGrath and a safety by Mullaley, who blocked a Marshall pass and fell on it behind their goal line. Touchdowns: Hamm, 1; McGrath, 1. Safety, Mullaley.

OUR BASKET BALL RECORD

FIRST call for basket ball was given the last week in November, and about seventy enthusiastic cagers reported to do their bit in defending the Big Seven title which the Tigers captured last season. The coaches could not give their best attention with so many boys, so the squad was soon cut to twenty members, who reported daily for the practice session.

Since all the lettermen of the championship team of 1927 returned, Coaches Bushman and Davenport began early to build up the team for the coming year, and the returning men after several days of practice, could plainly see that they were being pushed for their positions on the regular team, by an ambitious and fighting bunch of freshmen and sophomores, who had survived the several cuts made during the previous practice sessions.

After several weeks of practice the team rounded into shape and prepared for the opening conflict of the season with the Alumni.

On December 22 the Tigers clashed with the Alumni on the Smith-Cotton court, and put up a great fight. But the old grads, four of whom were playing the game on College teams, proved too strong, and the Bengals went down to defeat 64 to 49.

Defeat, however, did not discourage the Tiger warriors, and they came back strong to win twenty-two consecutive contests, defeating every Conference opponent twice by large scores.

On the night of January 6, Smith-Cotton defeated the Slater High School Wildcats by the lopsided score of 61 to 34. Happy Williams, brilliant Tiger center, led the scoring attack with 19 points.

The following week the Bengals met and easily defeated the William Chrisman High School quintet at Independence by a 50 to 17 score, the first time in the history of the two schools that a Tiger quintet had been victorious on the Chrisman court.

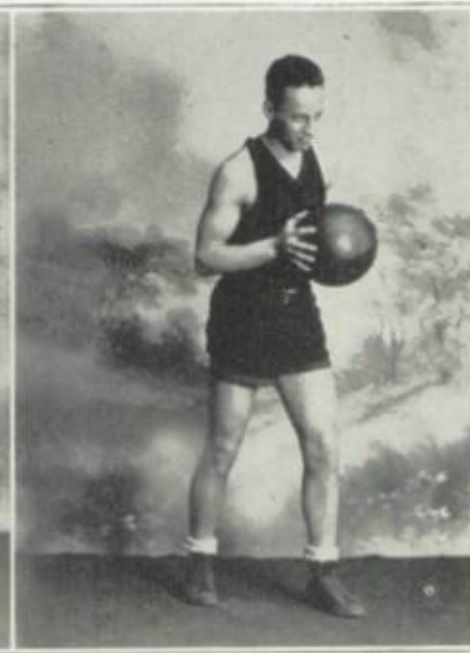

"HAPPY" WILLIAMS

The brilliant center who led the Conference scorers.

"FLACKEY" WILDER

A great defensive star who stopped many attacks.

"DICK" GORRELL

A speedy floor man who harassed many a guard with his flashing form.

Smith-Cotton continued the fast pace and easily defeated Higginsville, Odessa, Lexington, and Marshall, in Conference contests, and Warrensburg in a non-Conference tilt, more than doubling their opponents' score in every contest.

During the second half of the Conference's round-robin schedule the Tigers again displayed that brilliant team work and goal shooting by which they had distinguished themselves during the earlier part of the season, to defeat again every Conference opponent by a double score.

Paseo High School of Kansas City, a non-Conference foe, met their worst defeat in many years at the hands of the Tiger warriors on the local court by a 37 to 20 score.

At the annual Invitational High School Basket Ball Tournament, sponsored by the Missouri Valley College, the Smith-Cotton quintet met and easily defeated Marshall, Higginsville, Alma, and Richmond, to win first place.

"BILL" MULLALEY

A star in any phase of the court game.

ALLEN PARKS

A crafty and reliable pivot man.

JOE BOOTHE

A cool and crafty veteran who upset the best of attacks.

The teams entered in the Annual District Tournament held at Warrensburg, March 2 and 3, offered no effective opposition to the Bengals, and Independence and Clinton being defeated by lopsided scores, and Smith-Cotton received the right to represent the Central Missouri district in the State Tournament.

At the State Interscholastic Tournament in Columbia, after having decisively beaten Gilman City in the first round, Smith-Cotton was defeated by St. Joseph Central High School, city champions of St. Joseph. The Tigers had a team equal to any in the tournament but fortune was against them, and, when the final whistle blew, the Bengals were sent to defeat by a 25 to 27 score, their only defeat by a high school quintet in 23 consecutive contests.

The Tiger quintet was well represented on many All-Star teams. Fischer was chosen as captain and forward, and Williams was placed at forward on the All-Stars at the Missouri Valley Tournament.

GLEN WHITE

A steady player who added to the Tigers' scoring powers.

"BOB" MOORE

The Sophomore who played a cool and steady game.

"SHOCKEY" NEEDY

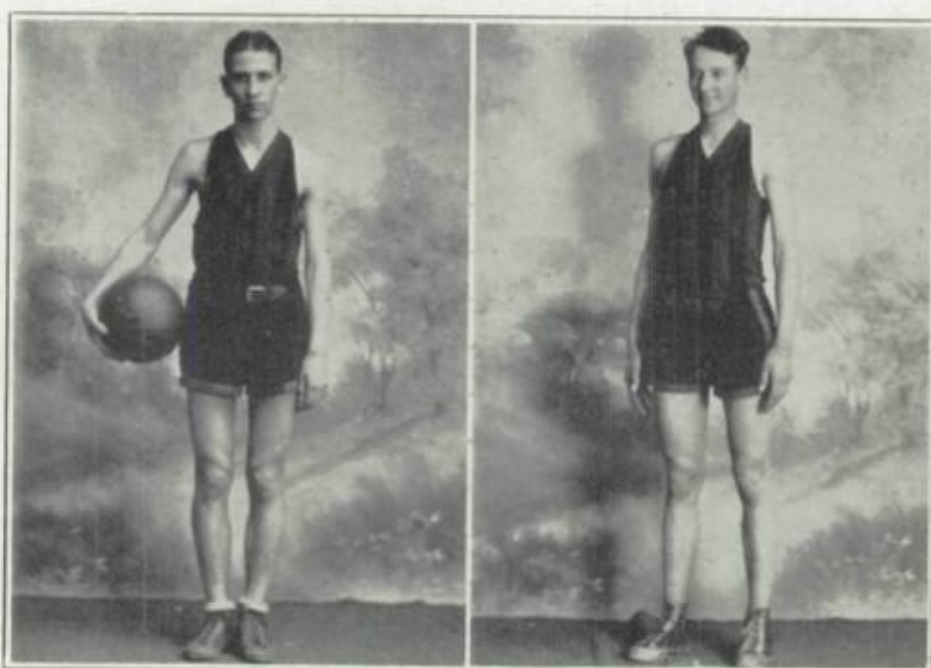

The fighting Tiger guard; a brilliant defensive player, an accurate long-shot man.

Smith-Cotton also was awarded four positions on the All-Stars at the Central Missouri District Tournament; Fischer, Williams, and Needy were given berths at forward, center and guard, respectively, while Gorrell was placed at forward on the second team. Williams was chosen captain of the team, and awarded the medal for the best sportsmanship displayed in the tournament.

At the State Tournament, Williams was given a position at center on the All-State squad, which was selected instead of an All-State team.

When the Coaches of the Big Seven met at Higginsville an All-Star squad was selected, and Smith-Cotton received a lion's share of the honors, placing the entire first team. Fischer and Gorrell were chosen as forwards, Williams as center, Needy and Wilder as guards. Fischer was chosen as captain of the squad, this being the second time this year he has captained the Big Seven All-Stars.

"LADDIE KEENS

He added greatly to the
Tigers' reserve strength.

NEIL ARNOLD

A Freshman luminary
and a promising guard.

TO A FOOTBALL JERSEY

You grimy old sweater, all tattered and worn,
 We've closed our career on the grid;
You mud-spattered jersey, all battered and torn,
 We fought 'em together, we did.
We shook a mean hoof on the field, so they say;
 We finished the season with honors, today;
And, now, you old rag, they will put you away
 For some other husky young kid.

Oh, often I've cussed you, you dirty old shirt,
 When, reeking with mud and with sweat,
I draped you around me and rolled in the dirt,
 And charged through the mud and the wet.
Remember the time when they ripped you in two?
 They tackled us high, but we fought our way through;
We fractured an arm and two ribs, it is true—
 That shoulder is paining me yet.

And, say, is it worth all the trouble, old shirt—
 The time and the struggles and pain?
Four seasons they drove us around in the dirt,
 In water and mud and rain.
No more will we thrill as the cheering stands roar—
 But, gosh—if they'd let me, I'd don you once more,
And do it all over again.

JEANNE SUZETTE BEAUSAY.

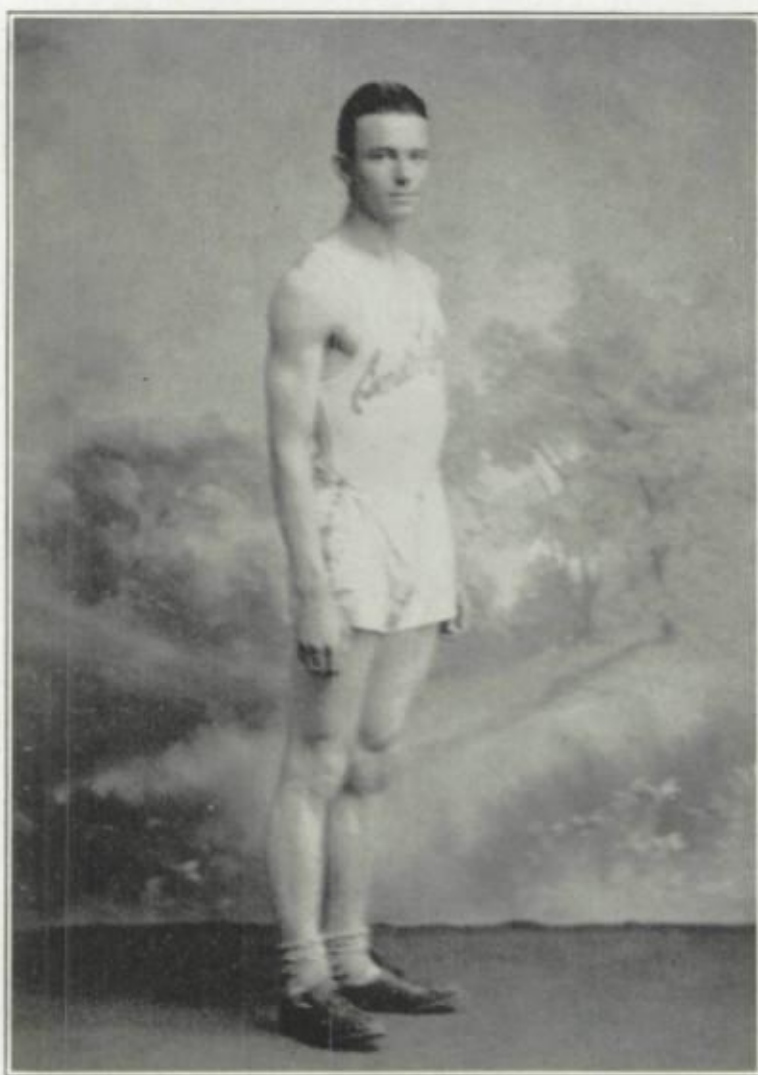

Do you remember?

WILLIAM MULLALEY, Track Captain

"Bill" set his share of records in the high hurdles and caused his opponents much worry in the sprints and broad jump; he also proved a capable leader and a valuable man to the relay team.

TRACK RECORD

WHEN the 1928 track season opened, only three of last year's lettermen remained to form the nucleus of this squad. A large gap was thus left to be filled by practically all green material, but under the capable direction of Coaches Bushman and Davenport, the squad soon rounded into shape.

The season was opened very auspiciously, at the second annual indoor track and field meet held at the Kemper Military Academy in Boonville. Smith-Cotton showed up well, taking third place and winning the relay, while a large number of Bengal point-getters were not entered in the meet because their event was not held.

On Friday, April 6, Smith-Cotton took more than her share of the firsts in downing the Marshall High School Purple and White in a dual meet held at Smith-Cotton. The Tigers, by copping eleven of the thirteen firsts, downed the Marshall tracksters by the decisive 77 to 31 score.

Captain Mullaley led the field for the scoring honors, taking three firsts and one second for a total of eighteen points.

Ray Mitzel, star Tiger quarter and half-miler, was second in line for the scoring honors with two firsts and two thirds for a total of twelve markers.

Back row—BARRACK, ROARK, FRANKLIN, E. MCGRATH, PAYNE, LAMY, WILSON, ZANDER, FISCHER, BYLER, GORRELL, J. J. MCGRATH, POTTER, PERKINS

Front row—MCMULLIN, OWENS, PATTERSON, MITZEL, DULY, CAPT. MULLALEY, BOOTHE, RISSLER, GRIFFIN, LE BEGUE.

AT THE annual Central College "C" Club track and field carnival, held at Fayette on Saturday, April 14, Smith-Cotton took second honors, and contributed her share of the record-breaking performances despite the almost freezing weather which considerably hampered athletics.

Lawrence Duly, outstanding Big Seven Conference weight man, led his teammates for the scoring honors, bettering the former mark of 112 feet 9 inches with a throw of 114 feet 2 inches.

In the twelfth annual William Jewell College track and field meet, held at Liberty, April 20, Smith-Cotton athletes again carried off second honors, and again led by Lawrence Duly in race for the scoring honors.

In the annual Central Missouri district track and field meet, held at the Warrensburg Teachers College Saturday, April 28, the Tigers finished third among the twenty-two schools entered, only one point behind William Chrisman High School of Independence, who won the meet with 21 points and only one-third of a point behind Lexington High School, who was second.

Captain Mullaley accomplished the outstanding performance of the meet when he shattered by a full second the high hurdle mark which had stood since 1925.

TO MRS. SARAH COTTON,

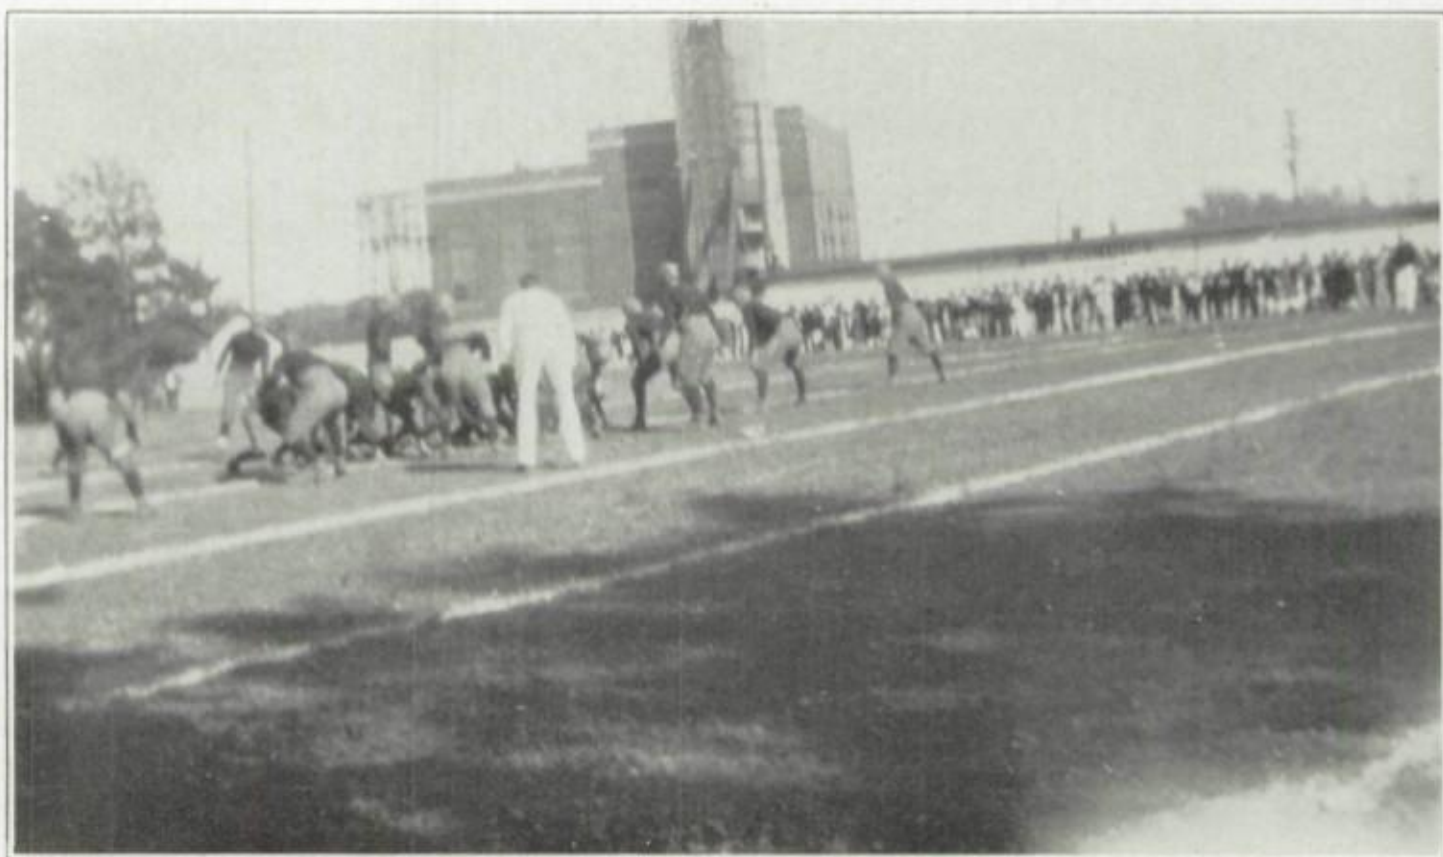

the never-failing friend of education in Sedalia, this page of The Archives is dedicated. To her the students of Smith-Cotton are indebted for the donation which made possible this magnificent building which is their school home, for the helpful sympathy and interest which she has manifested in all their activities, and for the inspiring example of her beautiful character. They here acknowledge their obligations with love and reverence, and express their wishes for her continued health and happiness.

KID DAY

ON Wednesday, October 12, our dignified Seniors laid aside their books, notebooks, and pencils, and rejoined the infant class. As they frolicked forth in their bloomer-dresses, hair-ribbons, socks, knickerbockers, and old-fashioned frilled waists, the underclassmen, who hold the Seniors as their shining examples, were horrified to their bones.

The Assembly was in charge of the children, who gave a novel kid-day program. The nursery rhyme, "The Old Woman Who Lived in the Shoe," was carried out, Wanita Spahr being the mother, and the Seniors her children. The stage was very attractively decorated, having a huge brown shoe at one side with an entrance for the children to come forth at the call of the old woman. Their program of orchestra numbers, songs, dances, readings, and class yells was much enjoyed by the students and their two hundred visitors.

After the Assembly, the kids, with their sponsor, Miss Eunice Cousley, and their old friend, Joe, smiled for the birdie, and Bang! the picture was taken for the Archives.

At the close of school the reverted kids saw "The Big Parade." Through the courtesy of the Sedalia Theatre manager, they had reserved seats at kids' prices. The day ended with a dance at Grotto Hall.

GYMNASIUM OR BEDLAM?

A One-Act Play
By GILBERT PARSONS

Scene: Dressing room of the gymnasium.

Time: Any first hour.

Cast: Boys coming in from the football field.

Parks: Say, McClosky, what was the idea of callin' me out on third?

Peabody, chiming in as usual: Aw, well, what about the rotten ones he called me?

Crosslin: Quit cryin'; we won anyway.

Lutjen: Say, Berthouex, can't you take a shower without comin' in here and shakin' like a Saint Bernard?

Berthouex: Say, you're no Spitz yourself. Where in the blankety blank is my towel?

Parks: Here, you! Get off my B. V. D.s, or you won't have any use for a towel in this world.

Berthouex: Put it to music.

Lutjen, poor, misguided lad, beginning to sing: Have you seen the muffin man, the muffin man, the muffin ma-a-a—Who threw that shoe?

Eloquent dumb show while Lutjen ducks various articles of gym equipment.

Then, with two minutes until the bell rings, everybody tries to get to the mirror at the same time.

Georgie—sometimes called George, but originally known as Royce: Do you insist on massaging my liver with your elbow?

Crosslin: Who was here first?

Georgie: You were, and it's about time you left.

Bell rings, and damp, uncomfortable boys hurtle out in various stages of undress.

Curtain.

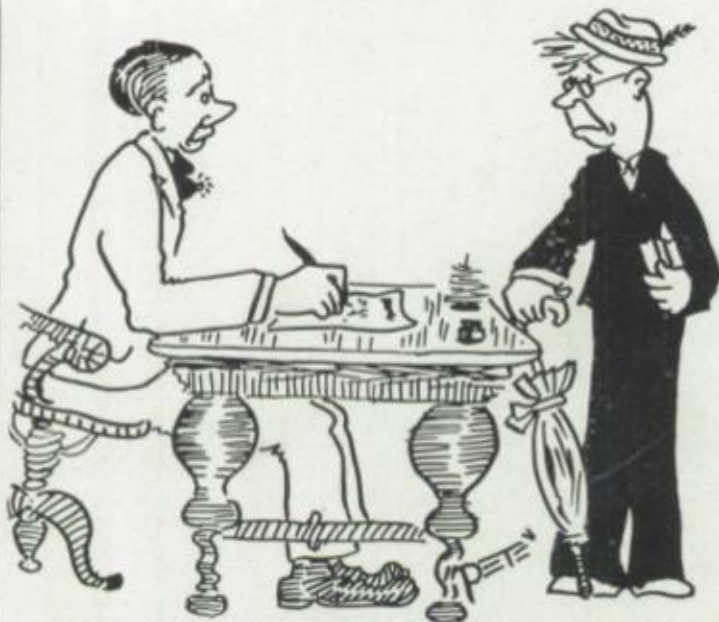

And this, ladies and gentlemen, is what you pay taxes for.

HOBO DAY

HOBODAY for this year, May 2, saw every member of the Senior class out in full regalia, the girls as gypsies and the boys as hoboes.

They met at the Y. M. C. A. Their pictures were taken back of the courthouse before starting on their search for money. At ten o'clock they again assembled at the "Y" and headed by the Hobo Band, paraded up to the Smith-Cotton auditorium, where they took charge of the assembly.

The program was in two parts. The first part was a gypsy scene in charge of the girls, a gypsy chorus, accompanied by the gypsy orchestra, and a group of gypsy dancers. Then came the hoboes. They poured upon the stage through every entrance possible. Their part of the program was a scream from start to finish. Several numbers were given by the Bum Quartette, which wasn't so "bum." After singing of songs and selections by the Hobo Band, John Speiler read the class prophecy, which the majority of the Seniors hope is false. The program closed with songs and selection by the band. The program was in charge of the Hobo King, Mac Egendorf, assisted by his Queen, Mary Edna Hert.

At noon a good square meal was served at the Liberty Hotel; the teachers and Superintendent Heber U. Hunt and Principal Paul A. Grigsby being special guests.

The remainder of the day was spent in auto, bus and street-car rides. Through the courtesy of the manager of the Sedalia Theatre, the Hoboes were admitted free. A short vaudeville was given by the Hoboes which was much enjoyed.

Approximately two hundred and twenty-six dollars was donated by Sedalians.

The celebration ended with a big Box Car Frolic at Hotel Terry, with Junior A and Junior B classes as special guests. Tired, but happy, the revelers turned their faces toward the prosaic morrow, and another Hobo Day passed into history.

DAILY SCHEDULE OF SMITH-COTTON (Non) STUDENT

Home room—Takes short rest after running all the way to school.

First hour—Dreams about the night before.

Second hour—Sleeps through study hall.

Third hour—Gazes out of the window the first half of the hour; gazes at the clock the second half.

Fourth hour—Writes notes, and tries to think of an excuse to get out of gym.

Fifth hour—Takes gym, and wonders why fat people get thin and thin people get fat on the same exercise.

Sixth hour—Makes plans to last until 8:30 next morning.

Mary Wilkerson: Why are football men so hard?

Melita Spillers: Probably because they have been so long on the gridiron.

Allen Gold: Have you a date for tomorrow night?

Dorothy Gray, hopefully: No, I'm not doing a thing.

Allen G.: Fine; I'll give you a good book to read.

Reece Dillard, in Problems class: Yesterday, Mr. Erickson told us how the farmer sold his hide and got a lot less for it than he had to pay for a pair of shoes—I mean he sold the cow's hide.

Conundrum—No prize for solution: Why do Charles Robinson and C. M. Sellers bring their parents to school with them so often?

Hamm: Why don't you put your foot where it belongs?

Flacky: Say, if I did, you wouldn't sit down for a month.

Miss Dalton: Paul, every time you open your mouth you make me home-sick.

Paul McMullin: Well, Miss Dalton, you don't give me an appetite.

Marie B., in gym: I'll stand on my head or bust.

Mildred S.: Never mind, Marie; just stand on your head.

Miss Cousley: I have sent Dorothy Clabaugh to the rest room for this period, Mr. Erickson.

Mr. Erickson, in whose class Miss Clabaugh is that hour due: Thank you, Miss Cousley.

Duncan: Ruth and I have been going together for two years, and have never had an argument.

Edwin M.: That's right. Let her have her own way; don't argue.

Happy Williams: Flacky, what's the cat's paw?
Flacky Wilder: Its father, of course.

Miss Combs: Have you students heard the story about the Golden Fleece?
Helen White: No, but I've heard about the trained fleas.

John Killion: I found a knife today. (Produces said knife.)
Mr. Erickson: I lost a knife like that the other day. Where did you find it?
John Killion: Out by our chicken house.
Mr. Erickson: Hem—a—er—ahem, it isn't mine.

Melita S.: What did you get on your birthday?
Mary Louise W.: A year older.

Opal S.: Mr. Headlee, do you know how you can get Miss Frick's goat?
Mr. Headlee: No, how?
Opal: Watch, and see where she ties it.

R. G.: Do you care if I smoke?
Edith R.: No, just so you don't blaze.

MODERN ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

ELECTRICITY is the consuming servant of the home. Already cooking, sweeping, washing, ironing, dish washing, toasting, and many other home problems have been solved by Electricity, and Electricity is only in its infancy.

There is no cleaner, nicer, easier method of performing the obnoxious house tasks than with Electricity.

Give your boys and girls a chance. Own the modern electric labor-saving home appliances and let your boy and girl familiarize themselves with these appliances.

A free demonstration of any of the modern Electric appliances gladly given.

Boys and girls! Don't follow the old, hard, unsatisfactory way; familiarize yourselves with the modern household servant—

Winter Outside Summer Inside

WINTER weather outside does not affect you inside. Your home is a place of warmth and comfort after you have installed a heating system. But that is not all. Think of the cleanliness and convenience it adds to your home. One big furnace heats the entire house. In every home where we install a heating system the benefit of our years of experience is behind us. That means absolute satisfaction and a plant that heats 100% capacity.

For one full year we repair free of charge any fault in the heating system—it's our guarantee and our standby.

A well ventilated, proper Heating System has been installed in the new Smith-Cotton High School by us, knowing that it is absolutely necessary for the preservation of the students' health and comfort.

CONGRATULATIONS

TO THE CLASS OF '28

"EACH day, as it comes, is but a door through which we step forward into a tomorrow.

You have now completed your high school education. What you have done with your opportunities will be apparent in every day of the years to come—in friendships made or lost, objectives gained or missed."

We want you to always live in Sedalia and take an active part in civic affairs of all kinds. Many opportunities await you here that no other city can offer.

The success of a Greater Sedalia of tomorrow rests upon your shoulders.
